A Musical Fable of Broadway

March 2, 3, 4
2007

A Note From The Director:

"It's hard to know which genius, and I do mean genius, to celebrate first... Do we speak of Damon Runyon, who created the characters of "Guys and Dolls" in his stories and with them a whole new American language? Or of Frank Loesser, who in 1950 translated Runyon into songs with melodies by turns brash and melting and lyrics that are legend?"

-Frank Rich, New York Times

I have always believed that Guys and Dolls is without a doubt the quintessential American musical. However, I don't think I ever really stopped and thought about why. Yes, it has a wonderful score, a fantastic book, and some really memorable characters. But so do a lot of shows. What sets Guys and Dolls apart?

As I began looking at the script before production started I found myself looking at the subtitle that is often forgotten: A musical fable of Broadway. I found myself curious as to why this show, of all shows, would call itself that. But then as I began to really examine the text, I stumbled across the answer to all of my questions- Guys and Dolls touches our heart while touching our funny bone. It makes us remember what it feels like the first time we see that one person we know we want to spend the rest of our lives with, while at the same time it makes us remember the amount of work that goes into keeping that relationship alive. It is the fantasy and the reality all at once. It teaches while entertaining. How many shows are out there that can do that, and do it well?

So I encourage you this evening to not only enjoy that fabulous Frank Loesser score and the wonderful Swerling and Burrows book, but to also look and listen very closely to these characters' experiences.

ENJOY!

Guys and Dolls is presented through special arrangement with Music Theater International.

To the Class of 2007,

We've made it.

By the time this yearbook is in your hands, we will be that close to graduating from Westborough High School. Guys - we've made it.

These past four years at WHS have been the biggest roller coaster ride, and we're nearing the end. From the dances, sports games, SATs, English papers, the new teachers, to the laughter and tears, we share many memories together. So don't ever forget them; cherish them and store them in your pocket.

As your class representitive, I've watched us develop from five-hundred cliques freshmen year into a unified senior class that matured socially, mentally, physically, and emotionally. When we all stood in the rain at the tie-dye party, continuing to show our spirit, I knew that our final year at WHS was going to be great. I'm proud to be a part of such a remarkable class and I appreciate the character of our class.

To the remarkable faculty and staff, thank you. You've prepared us for the "real world" and we truely thank you for the gift of knowledge. To our wonderful advisors, Mrs. Breeze and Ms. Hoey, you were always there for us and have shown great support. We were blessed and had great advisors, thank you so much! To my fellow officers over the past four years, I knew I could count on you. You guys are awesome and have helped me a lot! And to the class: give yourselves a round of applause. You've made WHS an extraordinary experience. We're all going somewhere in our future, and hopefully we will meet again. Thanks for all the memories.

Class of 2007, I'm never going to forget you.
So many memories we've been through.,
Here's to the days of gray and blue,
We've survived everything from tough grades to Dottie's lunch menu.
We're about to graduate, everyone scream "Yahoo!"
Yes, that last line was very corny, very pooh
But it's because I'm running out of rhymes for you.
We now journey the US, from California to the Louisiana bayou.
Maybe we'll meet one day in China among the bamboo.
Peace and love from me to all of you.
I hope to see you soon, and for now, bid you adieu.

Peace and Love,
Class President-Eddie Chen

And because ends did not come early,
We were surprised to feel our years fly so quickly.
And, like the strumming of a guitar,
The notes on a bass,
The quiet strength of the vocalist,
Or the fading of a drum,
The world we knew now leaves us.
And it is time to go, don't dispair,
We'll reconnect to reminisce what we shared. Promise

In a similar note to the rest of my highschool career, this bit has been churned out at the last possible moment. Thus, I will not try and carve in here something profound, but instead I want to leave behind a script of general appreciation.
A big thanks to all my peers, all my teachers, and of course my friends for making my stay in this establishment a memorable one. I can only hope I've helped make your days akin to mine.

If there is one thing I've realized is that every year of high school is your easiest and hardest. Thursdays will always be the worst day and an orange car will always be noticed. Make sure you look up and down before entering a room and always be kind to squirrels.

I want to say hey and best wishes to all my friends and class. Good luck class of 2007!

SENIORS 2007

Farewell from Mr. Pierce

Farewell Message for Seniors from Our Principal John Pierce

I am proud to have been your principal for these past four years and offer deep thanks to the class of 2007 for your strong presence at WHS.

Your maturity, responsibility, and extraordinary achievements in every quarter of this comprehensive high school have advanced a legacy of excellence and provided an exemplary model for others who will follow. Your leadership as seniors rose to the challenge of advancing our high school with new traditions that were deeply appreciated by students and faculty alike.

I hope that you have developed, and will long embrace the values of mutual respect, tolerance, cooperation and strong sense of community. Our precious democracy desperately needs informed citizens who will protect and advance a commitment to these ideals.

As you go forth to pursue your individual missions, carry the hopes and dreams that we have for each of you; recognize the precious gift that your life represents, and pledge to use it well. May your promising futures be healthy, happy, and truly rich with meaning and satisfaction. Commit your minds to inquiry, your hearts to compassion, and your lives to the service of others.

Please know that long after you have forgotten us, wherever you are, and whatever you may do, we will be watching for you in this world.

Where we love is home,
Home that our feet may leave
But not our hearts
The chain may lengthen,
But it never parts.

Love life.
Be grateful for it always.
And show your gratitude by not shying away from its challenges.
Always try to live a little bit beyond your capacities - and you'll find your capacities are greater than you ever dreamed.

Dream big, Jessica!

Congratulations, we love you!

Dad, Mom, Christine, Danielle, Matthew & Lucas

Caitlin,
May all your storms be weathered, and all that's good get better, here's to life, here's to love, here's to you.
Congratulations!

Love,
Mom, Dad, Lisa, and Megan

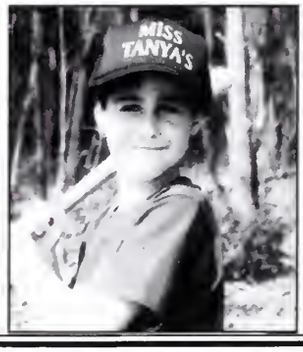
Sometimes I look at you and wonder,
"Where did my little girl go,
And who's this wonderful woman
Who looks so much like her?"

We are so proud of who you are.
As you choose your path in life,
You will always have our love and support!
Love, Mom, Dad, & Emily

From days of youth till life is done,
it's one for both and both for one.
We're all quite novel and precise,
But special folks, God made twice
-Larry Howland
Congratulations!
Love,
Mom, Dad & Abby

Greg,
Hang onto your dreams,
That's an easy thing to say,
But if your dreams should pass away,
Simply pretend
That you can build them again.
Look around, the grass is high,
The fields are ripe,
It's the springtime of your life.

Congratulations!
We love you and are so proud of you!
Love,
Mom, Dad, &Ali



Anya

Congratulations on an awesome job!

We love you sweetie!

Love,
Mom & Dad

May God bless and keep you always,
May your wishes all come true,
May you build a ladder to the stars
And climb on every rung
May you stay forever young,
May you have a strong foundation
When the winds of changes shift
May your song always be sung,
May you stay forever young
Love, Mom, Dad, Adam + Lauren

REGAN,

1989-a chance meeting in the GSLC nursery. WT&SC nursery: poor Cindy P. & good old Lillian! Church Christmas pageants: such perfect angels! .Charlotte Klein dance classes- followed by treats at Papa Gino's & Baskin Robbins. Joyful days spent at Longmeadow preschool & their summer camp. GLC gymnastics lessons-'potty talk' in the car, lunches at McDonald's & Burger King.Tennis lessons with Brit, you were both 'his favorite'. Midweek church school with Mrs. Gillam's candy rewards. Confirmation classes with Pastor Eric-he survived, barely. Countless sleepovers & birthday parties: with occasional tears & much laughter. Early release afternoons spent trolling the rotary shops. The Toy Cottage lady & candy cigarettes. Camp Calumet followed by 5 years at Camp Hayward. Super sized underwear, camp songs, dances & midnight escapades. Let's Dance program & Middle school dances leading up to high school semi formals & the Junior Prom & Senior Ball. You were there for each other through thick & thin. May your friendship thrive & flourish for many years to come!

Heather,

We are so proud of the wonderful, fun, and loving person you have become. Remember to follow your heart.... If you can dream it, you can BE it!!

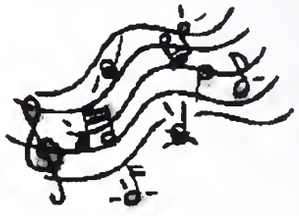
Kaylin,
You astound us with your wisdom, compassion for others and your love for life. May you never lose your sense of humor. And when you get the chance to sit it out or dance, we know YOU'LL DANCE. Work hard, love with all your heart and to thine own self be true.
Knock 'em dead, Kay.
Love, Mom, Dad, Jay, and Kim

Dear Ilanna and friends in the class of 2007,

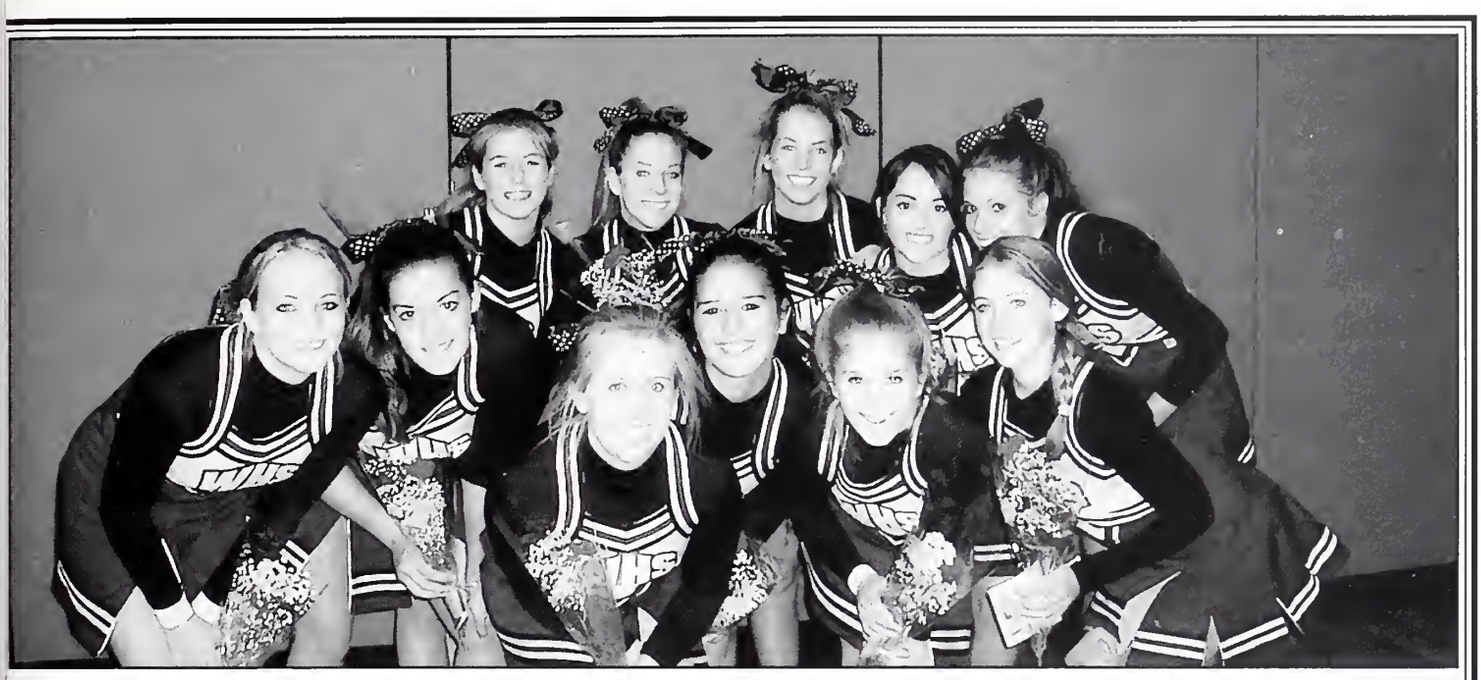
We will miss all the activity you brought to the house, the sleepovers, the after-dance parties, the cast-parties, the singing, making t-shirts on the ping-pong table, the foosball and pictionary games, the singing, guitar jams, midnight trampolining, the homework and exam sessions, the singing, the bags of chips, and especially, all that singing. Good luck in college, and don't forget to come back and visit.



The Saltzmans

Brooke...wishing you all things, great and small!

For the boundless adventure, energy, and laughter...thank you!
We love you, Mom, Dad, Christopher, Ryan, dogs, too-especially Ivy!



Thanks for all your spirit that will live on at WHS and in the hearts of your family and fans. Use that same enthusiasm as you enter the big competition called life!

ALLISON

You stand tall and proud, walking with a confident stride;
taking your measure and making your presence known both in the classroom, and on the playing fields.
You draw people in with your own quirky brand of humor;
and sustain them with loyalty and friendship beyond reproach.
The time has come for you to test the waters outside of your comfort zone. No worries
You have the abilities and strength of character to meet any challenges in your path
Happy trails to you!!
With our love, Mom, Dad, Yvonne and Stephen

Kay and Erin,

Dream big and your Stars!

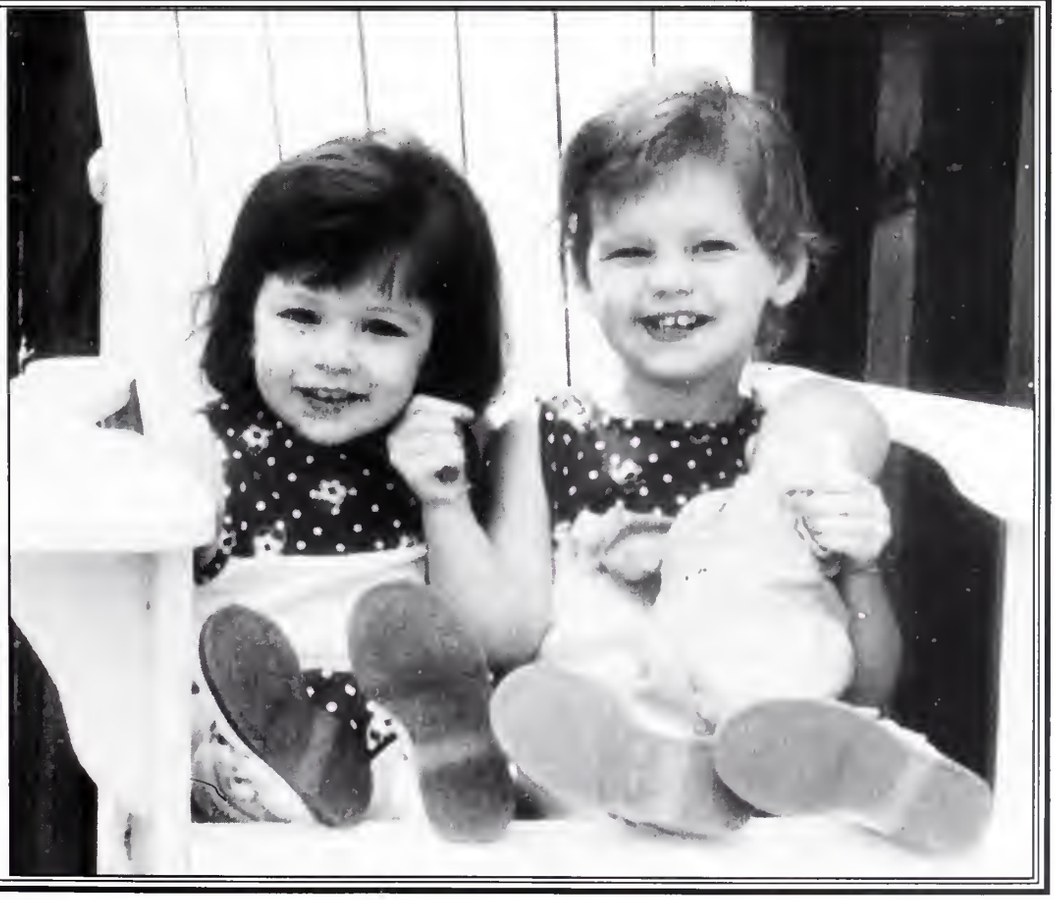
You make us proud,
Mom, Dad, Beetle
and Maggie



William,

We hope you never look back, but you never forget,
All the ones who love you, in the place you left,
We hope you always forgive, and you never regret,
And you help somebody every chance you get,
And find God's grace, in every mistake, and
You always give more than you take.

But more than anything,
Our wish, for you, is that this life becomes all that you want it to,
Your dreams stay big, and your worries stay small,
You never need to carry more than you can hold,
And while you're out there getting where you're getting to,
We hope you know somebody loves you, and wants the same things too.
(Lyrics from "My Wish")

Congratulations, you are terrific son. We are very proud of the man you have become. We Love You!

This is one of the very last pages that you see, so we wanted to leave you a note from us, the editors. This is the first year that there has been a lot more than just Senior pages. We worked hard to make a section for everyone, whether you are a Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, or Senior.

It's been a great year making this yearbook. Page after page, text after text, and before you know it the book is in your hands for you to enjoy. The staff has worked extremely hard in making this the best yearbook we could. If it weren't for the staff and our advisor we would not have been able to get everything done. We also needed you to do the things that you do, from coming to school, to sports, to clubs, to just being yourself.

As the days have flown by the yearbook has somehow come together faster than one could imagine. The three of us are now going on to college and going to leave our three juniors to create a better book than we did. As for the seniors who leave with us, good luck and hold onto this yearbook to remind you of the fun you had in your four years at Westborough High School. For the rest of the school, keep things interesting, and enjoy it, because it's over before you know it.

Sincerely, Greg, Darshana, and Sarah
